

“A Dancing Angel” in Memory of Cara Loughran

A Dancing Angel Award – In Memory of Cara Loughran – Sponsored by Maggie Eaton, Coe-Brown Northwood Academy senior, Northwood, NH and Community of Murray Academy of Irish Dance, Exeter NH. The scholarship is being created in Memory of Cara Loughran. Cara tragically lost her life in the Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School tragedy, February 14, 2018. As a student of Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School, Cara was a talented young woman who was an Irish dancer at the Drake School of Irish Dance in Florida.

This award opportunity, “A Dancing Angel” in memory of Cara Loughran, is being offered to a Broward County graduating senior who is currently enrolled in dance and has post-secondary plans, to pursue their love of dance personally or professionally. Applicants must be from Broward Public or Charter Schools, preferably from Marjory Stoneman Douglas.

Applicants must meet the following criteria:

1. Enrolled currently in a dance school, with post-secondary plans, to pursue their love of dance personally or professionally.
2. Submit proof of acceptance to an accredited college, university, community college, institute of dance.
3. Submit one letter of recommendation, preferably from a teacher of Dance.
4. Have a G.P.A of 2.5 or above (Most recent unofficial transcript required).
5. Include in the application a short essay indicating why you would like to receive this scholarship and, why you feel you would be the best candidate to be selected.
6. Area of study – N/A
7. Demonstrated commitment to community service hours with a minimum of 40 hours.

Complete the application and submit by 4:00 PM, on April 1, 2019.